

NATIONAL FOREST USAGE | BY THE ACRE

FOREST SERVICE DISTRICT	FINAL ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT & DRAFT RECORD OF DECISION RELEASED	PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD	TOTAL ACREAGE OF FOREST SERVICE DISTRICT	ACREAGE CURRENTLY OPEN TO OSVs (Over-snow vehicles)	ACREAGE PROPOSED TO REMAIN OPEN TO OSVs	PERCENT REDUCTION IN ACREAGE OPEN TO OSVs UNDER PROPOSED PLANS	OSV PLAN CHANGES	AREAS OF NO CHANGE IN PLAN
LAKE TAHOE BASIN MANAGEMENT UNIT	Proposal released Sept. 20, 2019	Comment period closes Nov. 19, 2019	155,000	79,426	75,817	2%	All OSV access allowed only from Nov 1-April 15. Restricted OSV access proposed to areas north of Incline Village, Hell Hole, the Pacific Crest Trail at Barker Pass and Fallen Leaf Lake. Additional OSV access proposed at Third Creek north of Mount Highway, Glenbrook Bay, Hartoonian Trails and Tahoe Mountain. Odd-days only for OSVs proposed south of Mount Rose Highway by Chickadee Ridge. Addition of up to 22 parking spaces for trail access. Designation of groomed trails for motorized and human-powered travelers. 12-inch minimum snow depth; 6 inches on trails. One designated crossing of PCT at Barker Pass. No OSVs on single private lots of less than 2 acres.	Continued OSV access north of Mount Rose Highway; Tunnel Creek; Slaughterhouse Road; most of Carson Range on East Shore; parts of Trout Creek; Saxon Creek; most of the area surrounding Fallen Leaf Lake; Twin Peaks and Sawmill Pond; Blackwood Canyon; Ward Creek; Truckee River Canyon down to Deer Park; areas around Tahoe Rim Trail on North Shore by Mount Watson and Mount Pluto; Brockway Summit.
ELDORADO	Oct. 31, 2018	Closed Dec. 17, 2018	615,037	458,600	337,100	26%	Restricted OSV access nearby Van Vleck Road and Loon Lake; Echo Summit by Adventure Mountain; and most areas below 4,000 feet in elevation. 12-inch snow depth minimum; 6 inches on trails. 58 miles of groomed OSV trails near Silver Bear trail system.	Continued OSV access to sections of PCT including Forestdale/Blues Lakes and Sourdough; areas near Amador, Georgetown, Pacific, Caldor, Blue Lakes and Placerville.
LASSEN	March 29, 2018	Closed May 14, 2018	1,150,020	964,030	762,920	21%	Restricted OSV access nearby Colby Mountain, Eagle Lake, Bizz Johnson National Recreation Trail, Hog Flat and all lands below 3,500 feet. 12-inch snow depth minimum; 6 inches on trails. 17 designated crossings of Pacific Crest Trail.	Continued OSV access at Butte Lake, Lake Alman, areas north of Mt. Lassen National Park and parts of McGowan National Recreation Trail. 380 miles of designated OSV trails retained.
PLUMAS	Aug. 19, 2019	Closed Oct. 4, 2019	1,204,750	1,147,825	858,436	25%	Restricted OSV access to areas in or adjacent to Mount Fillmore, Bucks Lake Wilderness, Upper Jamison Creek, Thompson Peak, Lost Sierra Ski Traverse, Lakes Basin and most lower elevation areas. 12-inch snow depth minimum; 6 inches on trails. 16 designated crossings of Pacific Crest Trail.	Retained OSV access at Antelope,Bucks, Canyon Davis, Frenchman, Lakes Basin, La Porte; retained access to PCT in most remote areas; Upper Florentine Canyon; Silver Lake Road; small portions of Middle ForkInventoried Roadless Area and Buzzard’s Roost Roadless Areas stay open. 143 miles of groomed OSV trails.
STANISLAUS	Feb. 15, 2019	Closed May 13, 2019	898,099	684,505	141,073	60%	Construction of five temporary winter stream crossings for OSVs. No OSV access in areas south of Haypress Lake, lower reaches of Jelmini Basin, seasonal closure of Sonora Pass, Woodchuck Basin and most lower elevations. 12-inch snow depth minimum.	Retained OSV play areas along Highway 4 and 108; Pacific Valley and Eagle Night “near natural” areas; Bear Valley Ski Resort; Highland Lakes; .48 mile section of PCT south of Highway 108 near Sonora Pass will stay open to OSVs until April 15 each year.
TAHOE	Feb. 7, 2019	Closed March 25, 2019	811,740	636,002	406,895	28%	Restricted OSV access to Boca Reservoir by Hirschdale Road; the Pacific Crest between Tinker’s Knob and Sugar Bowl; the area between Sagehen Research Station and Independence Lake; areas around Loch Levon. 500-foot buffer for Pacific Crest Trail with 34 designated crossings. 12-inch snow depth minimum; 6 inches on trails.	Continued OSV access on northeast face of Castle Peak; east side of Anderson Peak and Sierra Buttes.